

ALBERTA ASSOCIATION
ON GERONTOLOGY
Improving the Lives of Older Albertans

BECOME A MEMBER!

The Alberta Association on Gerontology (AAG) is a province-wide, interdisciplinary organization committed to enhancing the lives of older Albertans. With a focus on collaboration and open communication, AAG plays a vital role in advancing the well-being of older adults across the province. The association supports:

- Research to better understand the needs and challenges of older adults.
- Policy development aimed at improving services and supports for aging populations.
- Knowledge exchange by connecting the public, experts, service providers, and government to promote best practices and innovative solutions.

Through these efforts, AAG strives to improve the quality of life for older adults, ensuring they have access to the resources and support they need to thrive in Alberta.
